

Christmas Tree Lights

This meant drilling a hole in the fascia every 18 inches all along the roof line. Screwing in a hook every 18 inches to support the Christmas light string. According to the HOA rules, the hooks had to be painted the same color as the fascia. Also an outdoor electric box was mounted on the side of the main incoming electric breaker enclosure, this was to accommodate the end of the Christmas light string.