

The utility room shelving

Utilized floor particleboard as shelving, finished off the ends and rough edges. Using 12 and 18 inch shelf brackets for support, that were painted green to match the walls. The shelves were given a double coating of white semi gloss paint for durable finish. This is a convenient area to turn into my computer room, also convene for storage of drygoods.